MIB Group Reorganizes Subsidiaries; Names Two to New Executive Positions

WESTWOOD, Mass. (October 11, 2006) James F. Cook, President and CEO of MIB Group, Inc., has announced the operational reorganization of two subsidiaries, MIB, Inc. and MIB Solutions, Inc. (formerly e-Services Corporation).

“Moving forward, each unit will operate with greater autonomy than they have in the past,” Cook said. “This will give us greater operational effectiveness in meeting the needs of our member companies while at the same time developing new products to serve the industry.”

Robert L. DiAngelo will serve as Executive Vice President of MIB Group and head its subsidiary MIB, Inc. Lee B. Oliphant will serve as Executive Vice President of MIB Group and head its subsidiary MIB Solutions, Inc. Linda Barnes, Controller, will become the Chief Financial Officer of MIB Group. These appointments are effective immediately.

“This reorganization will enable us to further focus our membership services,” said Frances T. Georgianna, who will serve as Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer for MIB, Inc. “MIB, Inc. will focus on making our unrivaled database even more useful for our members while MIB Solutions will concentrate on developing new products and joint ventures to help take advantage of new developments in the industry.
